temporary officer. Before doing so, let long enough to permit Mr. Pollard to of-me eay you have assembled for the fer an argument in favor of voting down purpose of nominating a candidate to the substitute and adopting the origirepresent this district in the next Congress of the United States. The duty before you is an important one and I am sure you fully realize your work. Let your deliberations be conducted with a feeling of pride and harmony, remem-bering we are all Democrats working for victory. When you have selected your standard bearer, place him on the tick et with Bryan and Sewall and for that ice, do your most earnest work. Re-memi wer Democrats, your old enemy is still in the field, hungry for the honors they seek. You have it in your power to aga, a vanguish them. Will you do it or not! You have always in the past been true to your party, for the future I have no fear. Feeling, you will know victory will not be so easily won this down on ? lovember 2d. The convention will now a me to order."

ganization as agreed upon by the committee, as follows:

Temporary chairman, Ben. P. Owen, of Temporary specretary, J. Bell Bigger, of Temporary

Temporary door-keepers, W. T. Gar-

ing, Myer Angle.
MR. OWENS CHOSEN. MR. OWENS CHOSEN.

Mr. Hiwards, of King William, arose and protested against the recommendation of the District Committee in naming Ben. P. Owen, as temporary chairman of the convention. He moved that Harry M. Smith, Jr., of Blebmond, be made temporary chairman, and added that Mr. Smith was a cool and level-headed man who would fill the bill. Mr. Smith, it may be stated here, is one of Ellett's supporters.

Chairman Scott, then put before the convention the motion to call the roll of the county and city delegates accord-ing to the roll of the committee, which was carried.

The vote for temporary chairman resuited as follows:

	N OH		-
		- 57	m	1,11,
Chesterfield	12		13
Con-bland	-0		6
Hanover	. 5	1-2	- 6	1-2
Wentled	22		22
Manchester	1.2		0
New Kent	- 9		0
Richmond	33	- 12	68
King William	20	1:2	- 67	142
Totals,	96		91
Totals, verrenterment of the contract of the c

The announcement from the Chair of the result of the vote brought forth wild cheers from the Lamb men who favored

Owen as temporary chairman.

This was regarded as one step to-wards victory for Captain Lamb, and was marked down in the estimation of most of the Lamb benchmen as a test vote that would be duplicated on the vote for a population.

MR. OWEN'S SPEECH.

Chairman Scott appointed a committee to escort Mr. Owen to the rostrum, which was done amid another voiley of yells, while Mr. Fannister, who had shook hands with the lemporary chair he had presided over the convention two years ago, when Colonel Ellett was non-inated for Congress. Little did he know insted for Congress. Little did he know then that the men before him would be-come anarchists, socialists, and all that, The fight was one of more importance than gold or silver. It involved the lib-than gold or silver. If involved districtive of the people.

Mr. Owen then grew highly rhetorical, and referred to the proceedings of the convention being transacted beneath the shadow of the famous church where Patrick Henry made his "Laberty or Doath" speech. He then thanked the convention for the honor bestowed upon him, declared that the body was ready for business, and then Colonel John Bell Bigger was chosen temporary secretary Bigger was chosen temporary secretary

Mr. Owen's speech was received with

Colonel J. Bell Bigger, on motion of Colonel J. Bell Bigger, on motion of Captain John A. Curtis, was selected as temporary secretary by acclamation.

"This is an unexpected call upon me," and the Colonel. He then referred to the publication that he had resigned the State secretary-ship on account of sick-State secretary-ship of sick-State s ness. "But that is not so," said he. "I am as well and lively loods, as ever, and can do as much as any young man in this hall for the defeat of all that oppose the true Democracy of this district. We want to defeat Mark Hanna and in that fight you will find me in the front ranks of Democracy, where I will always somain."

always remain. THE REPRESENTATION.

Mr. George McD. Hake offered a reso-lution that the Committees on Credentials, Permanent Organization, and Resolutions he made up respectively of one delegate each from the various county delegations and the Manchester delegation, and from each of the ward delegations of the city of Blahmond.

and the Manchester delegation, and from each of the ward delegations of the city of Richmond.

Mr. H. L. Carter offered a substitute the effect of which was to give the countiles representations on these three committees according to the numerical strength of each county and city. This, of course, would give Richmond city an increased representation on the committees, and the members of the convention did not fall to cafeh the drift of this, and they broke in upon Mr. Carter with cheers and laughter, and "Gave your scheme away, old man."

Mr. Blake tried to make a speech, but the convention drowned out his voice with cheers, and then an elderly gentleman arose on the restrum and declared that the King William imbroglio should be decided before the body proceeded further with busitiess. Cheers for "Smith" broke in upon the speaker, and nothing would suit the Ellett men until Mr. Smith came forward and made a speech.

George McD. Blake, in behalf of Captain Lamb, replied to Mr. Carter, Much confusion prevailed during Mr. Bibke's speech.

A delegate from King William protested

A delegate from King William protested against the motion made by the Lamb people.

MR. SMITH'S SPEECH.

MR. SMITH'S SPEECH.

Mr. Harry Smith seconded the plan proposed by H. L. Carter. We are going to threw off precedent and be a free people once more. No fair or housest man can say there is no fairer proposition. If we had adopted the unit rule. Richmond woud have named Ellett at Staunton. (At this point the Ellett men rose on marss and cheered their candidate.) Richmond, according to her vote and membership in this convention, is entitled to a majority of the members of the Committees on Credentials and Resolutions. In the various counties where Colouel Ellett has a minority debegation he is refused a representation on these committees. The counties, and yet only the city is allowed representation and none of the counties. Laubmit that this is not fair to the Democrats of the city, nor to the voters of the district.

Mr. John A. Curtis made an impas-Mr. John A. Curtis made an impassioned speech, amid the general hubbub, opposing the point raised by Mr. Smith, raising the point that the Richmord delegation could not adopt the unit rule since the pian provided that the votes he cast direct. He was followed by Judge Flournoy, who referred to the "olive branch" oratory of Mr. Carter, and said: "What we want in this convention is fair play, if there is anything in God's world I do detest, it is a precedent. A precedent is cited to sustain an argument on ag side. He pleaded at the se that every man should do what he thought was right, and would act ecording to the dictates of his control of the convention.

THE COMMITTEES.

On agreeing to the fliake resolution the pending queston was called, with the following result: For the resolution, 96; against, 21. Adopted.

At this point Mr. H. L. Carter moved.

that the convention take a recess until to clock. When this motion was put the chairman find considerable difficulty in controlling the convention, owing to the noise and confusion. The convention renoise and confinden. The convertion re-fused to adjourn, and the secretiary called the roll of countles for their selection, for the various committeemen. The Hanover, Goochiand, and Richmend delections asked permission to retire in order to select their men. After considerable teed by their respective delegations as mem-bers of the Committees on Permanent Organization, Resolutions, and Creden-

Chesterefild-Fermanent Organization

D. W. Cheatham; Credentials, C. T. Jones; Resolutions, R. G. Wood.
New Kent-Permanent Organization, L. F. Barnes; Credentials, R. F. Lacy; Resolutions, W. F. Woodward.

Hanover-Permanent Organization, J. L. Deltrick: Credentials, J. N. Ruffia Resolutions, Dr. T. J. Woolridge.

Intions, A. R. Courtney, Goochland—Permanant Organization, R.
F. Vaughan; Credentials, R. S. Johnson;
Resolutions, W. T. St. Clair, King Wallam—There were no commiteerien appointed from this county owing Permanant Organization—Clay Ward, J. D. Patton; Monroe Word, James E. Me-cenny; Madison Ward, Cumingham Hall; Jackson Ward, W. M. Coulling; Jefferson Ward, T. A. Barry; Marshall Ward, H.

SPEECHES WHILE YOU WAIT. Charman Owen then introduced Mr.
C. M. Wallace, Jr., as the free-silver elector from the Third district. He made a speech in which he said the first cona speech in which he said the first consideration for the convention was to be sure they elected their nominee to Congress. The convention was divided into two camps, and the feeling had run filth, so that it was a question of importance for anyone present who had been mistrealed or death with unjustly to keep it to himself, and not visit it upon the Democratic party. The Democratic party which had be ome rejuvenated, had been brought out of the valley of the shadow of death. There was a hard fight before them, said the speaker, and the voters had no right to do anything that would injure the party at large. He closed with an appeal to those present to rally to the support of the party.

Air, Wallace was followed by Air, Boyer, who pleaded at God's name to nave falrness in their deliberations. He said that Wall street, and old England were trembing at the approach of the freus of November. "I don't care who you nominate, whether Colonel Ellett, Captain Lamb, Mr. Curtis, or anybody else, I will take off my coat and support him," said Mr. Poyce.

About that time Captain Richard E. Frayser, familiarly known now as "Silver Dick," and who was for a little white nate, whether Cotonel Effett, Captain Lamb, Mr. Curtis, or anylody cise, I will take off my coat and suport him," said Mr. Poyce.

About that time Captain Richard E. Frayser, familiarly known now as "Silver Dick" and who was for a little white himself a candidate for the nomination, entered the hall. There were cries for him, and he made his usual "sixteen-to-one" speech, saying that free alizer was the basic agitaing the American people, and that the people would win. He had never seen arything like Eryan's roception everywhere. It reminded him of George Washington's trip to New York, when he went to be inaughtated. Mr. Frayser predicted a great victory for free silver amid a volume of yells that drowned out the rest of his address.

AN EFFORT IN PANYOMIME.

Delegate Sizer, of Henrico, tried to speak too, but the noise sinothered everything he said except the words: "This set the convention wild, and for five minutes there was nothing to he and the was not responsible for the progration of the State Democratic party of Virginia, of which the Hon. J. Taylor of Virginia, of the State Democratic party of Virginia, of the State Democratic party of Virginia, of the Wash of the proceedings and treat and read and meyer leave anything like Eryan's roception of the State Democratic party of Virginia, of the beand that the people wash of the proceedings and treat and read that the people washington, a true and tried Democrat, was chairman. "Since this is the required that the dediction of the Stat thin, and he made the unit rule. Richmond, and adapted the unit rule. Richmond, according to her vote and membership and that us recole wome up. It was a fairly composed the unit of the surface of the condition. In the various counties and Resolutions, In the various counties where Coloude Ellett has a minority debration to the second on the second the surface of the counties, and the task of the counties, and be offen unimer cast by the counties, and to the counties, and the task of the counties, and the votes of the counties, and the task of the counti and Ends in Charges of Bribery.

During the second recess, delegator in the headquarters of the two candidates. A few drops of rain ieli, but it did not dampen the ardor of the Lamblatter gentlemen from Henrico county sheep up and down Seventh street in the vicinity of Broad and much merriment was caused thereby.

At 6:50 o'clock Chairman Owen rapped the convention to order, but nothing was done for quite a while, and the members of the body patted each other on the shoulders, and speculated on the prob-ties, who were infavor of the renomi-nation of Colonel Ellett. The delegates

SPEAKING AMID CHAOS.

Richmond T. Lacy, of New Kent, a supporter of Captain Lamb, spoke on behalf of the opposite side, arguing in favor of the majority report of the committee. He referred to the precluct meetings in King William, which he said were not called by the county chairman, while the meeting that elected the Lamb delegates on August 25, 1896, was called by the county chairman.

Mr. Lacy went on speaking along this line until a tall, gray-haired delegate from King William arose and finally got the consent of the speaker to interrupt him. Matters grew quiet for a moment, when the tall gray-haired delegate yelled out: "What the devil is the use in having a county committee if the chairman alone is empowered to transact all the basiness." SPEAKING AMID CHAOS.

ters pending before them. There was an uprovar against this, and yells and chaos prevalled.

Some one finally suggested 6-15 o'clock as the hour for reassembling, and this was decided upon after vigorous opposition.

DEAD-LOCK AND DISORDER.

Night Session Attended With Confusion and Engls in Charges of Bribery. from all sides, interspersed only by lan-guage not to be found in the Sunday-school books.

Amid the general confusion a dozen men got upon chairs and tried in vain to say a word. There was a stampede for the rostrum, and a fight was started near the centre of the room. This was shortly quelled, while a policeman threat-ened to use his billy. It had been stated that there was something in the wind.

ened to use his billy. It had been stated that there was something in the wind.

CRIES OF BRIBERY.

It only remained to be seen what this "something" was Chairman Owen got up on the table and pleaded for order. It was of no use. Nothing could be done with the crowd which had then turned itself into a rip-rearing mob with no semblance of order. "Bribery!" was heard loudly from the Lamb quarters, and, "Who got the money?" became a familiar sound. Again Chairman Owen rapped repeatedly for order, but nobody pid any attention to him. Bunches of men swayed from one side of the ball to the other, and swept chairs and all in front of them. Cries and cheers, screams and Comanche-like yells, roars and grosms joined in the general din. Now ers to leave the null.

SADDEST FRATULE.
SADDEST FRATULE.
St feature of the entire day be witnessed. It was pittful scrumbling about the half,
purpose in view nor mission
a hewling mob, uncontrolla-

SAID THEY WERE BRIRED.

Mr. Robertson then stated in the presence of several gentlement that the three Manchester delegates who had gone over to the Ellett safe had been britised by Colone tellett's leaders. Said he: 'The Manchester delegation of thirteen members, held a caucus Tuesday and elected members are accounted by the designation of the delegation should vote set a whole, and that when the hatipting commenced I, as chairman, should east the vote for the delegation. The caucus also wanted me to vote for the delegation as a body on all questions that required a vote. This I declined to do, upon the ground that this would be putting too much power into the hands of one man. SAID THEY WERE BRIBED.

f one man.
"I agreed to cast the nominating votes and also consented to vote for the Man-

OFFERED THEM $150.

what a number of people stated, and gen-eral condemnation was heard as to the proceedings of the gathering. AFTER ADJOURNMENT.

eral condemnation was heard as to the proceedings of the gathering.

AFTER ADJOURNMENT.

After the convention adjourned the adherents of the two candidates assembled at their respective headquarters, and the detsates from the countries who were unable to work in their speeches during the day took this oppertunity to do so, and the silver wings of oratory spread over the heads of the centing politician until a very late heur.

At the Ellett headquarters, in the assembly-from at Striger Hall, an informal meeting was held, presided over by Mr. H. L. Cytier. Mr. H. M. Smith, Jr., addressed those present briefly, thanking them for their alleviance to the cause of Colone Ellett, and announced that the Ellett delegates would meet at their Sanger Hall headquarters this morning at 10 o'clock.

The Lamb people met at Zimmerman's, and were addressed by various delegates, who urged them to stick together and expose the wily tricks of the enemy. They will also a cet this morning before the convention assembles. The Ellett men will meet at their headquarters this morning at 10 o'clock.

"The ve never voted the Republicant leket in my life," said a man who claimed to be a delegate from Marchester, "but this settles me, and I shall vote for McKinley as sure as I live."

"We won't let them nominate any one," said another delegate.

"The best thing for this convention to do now, in order to bring this thing out of chaos and get the people together," said and or M. Rawley, "is to nominate a 'dark horse.' The bitterness here ex-

Bigger.

THE PLATFORM.

The following, which was recommended by the Committee on Resolutions, will doubtless be adopted by the convention to-day:

"Resolved, That we endorse fully, with-

Resolved. That we endorse fully, withcut reservation, the platform adopted by the Democratic party in convention assembled at Chicago on July 7, 1896.

2. We further endorse the nomination of Bryan and Sewall, and hereby pledge to them our hearty support.

2. We are in favor of the free and unlimited crimage of silver, at the ratio of 18 to 1, regardless of the wishes of Wall street, or any foreign pawer.

"A. R. COURTNEY, Chairman,
Horaco A, Hawkins, Secretary.

The Lamb managers say that wholesale

Subscribed and sworn then said, "Til make it $25." I told the that I was not that kind of a main a walked off. I met Mr. James Botto ne by, and told him what had happened. (liven under my hand, this 3d day September, 1895. J. B. RUDD Sworn to and subscribed before ms, it 3d day of September, 1895.

GEORGE I. HOOPER, JR.,

Notary Public. I, James Botto, of the city of Richmond to certify that on this day, about 12 o I, James Botto, of the city of Ricarrond, do certify that on this day, about 12 or 12:20 octock, I saw Mr. J. B. Redd and two other persons in conversation near the corner of Bread and Seventh streets, and I heard Mr. Rudd say on parting with them, "My word and honer are worth too much; I am not that kind of a man." I heard one of the ren say to him, "Let's take a drink?" Mr. Rudd said, "I don't drink." He then said, "Don't speak to me any more." One of these men afterwards called Mr. Rodd back, but he refused to go, and returned with me to the convention hall.

Gleen under my hand, this 3d day of September, 1809.

JAMES BOTTO.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 3d day of September, 1805.

GEORGE J. HOOPER, JR.,

GEORGE J. MOOPER, JR., Notary Public, State of Virginia-city of Richmond-to

State of Virginia—city of Richmond—towit:

I. Oliver Jones, residing at No. 417 north Sixth stret, in the city aforesaid, do hereby certify that I was approached at the convention half this moraling about 11 o'clock by Mr. Lawrence Haake, who asked me if I was a delegate to the convention, I spoke as if I was. He then told me there was a hundred dollars in it if I would vote for Colonel Ellett, 'that is, I will get Eo for you and $10 for myself, if you will vote for him.' I then told him I was not a delegate and had no vote. He said he did not have the money himself, but he knew the man who had it, and he would get it if I would give him $10. Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 3d day of September, Iss.

GECRGE J. HOOPER, JR.

State of Virginia—City of Richmond—to wit:

I. G. W. Gooding, de hereby certify

to wit:

I. G. W. Gooding, do hereby certificate to-night, in Sanger Hall building just before the vote was taken on it minority report of the Committee of Credentials, I was offered $100, to be pa Credentials, I was offered $100, to be paid to me at any time that I might name to-merrow, if I would vote for the minority report of the Committee on Credentials, although I promised that if the report suited me I would vote with the majority; otherwise I would vote for the minority report, and that I would vote on my own personal responsibility, according to my own judgment, without a cent from anybody.

Given under my hand this 3d day of September, 1896.

Geo. J. HOOPER, Jr.,

State of Virginia—City of Richmond—to-wit;

I. G. W. Gooding, residing at No. 181.

what I would do. I told him my mind was made up and could not be bought for a hundred dollars or any amount of money that Colonel Ellett had, that I would be housest in what I first said—that I would go for Captain Lamb first, last, and all the time.

Given under my hard this 2d day of September, 1896.

G. W. GOODING.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 3d day of September, 1896.

GEO. J. HOOPER, Jr.,

Notary Public.

State of Virginia, city of Richmond—40: wit:

condition.

Indige Coff of the Federal Themit Court, has directed write to be issued and served upon all of the lawyers of this place who represent the creditors of H. G. Wadey (who simula indicted in the County Court, of Wythe for emberziller the funds of the Wytheyllie Farking and Insurance Company), who sued him and his incolvent company in the United States District Court at Abingdon, to appear before him at that place and purge themselves of centengst and pay all of the accumulated costs in the cases before they can further prosecute their cluster sunts, and upon failure to do so within ten days the suits are to be djenies ed.

As Wadley is the defendant in the cases.

failure to do so within ten days the suits are to be dismissed.

As Wadley is the defendant in the cases, and as this proceeding is had at his instance, it has naturally created a good bit of indignation among the members of this very alse bar, whether they are interested in the cases or not, especially when they recall the fact that many of Wadley's greditors are Virginians, and living eithin the jurisdiction of the District Fourt, walle Wadley has absented himself from the State, and now claims resisting in Wilmington, N. C.

A GREAT BOOK FREE.

If you will send 21 cents in stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association Buffalo, N. Y., you will receive, post-paid, a copy of Dr. Pierce's "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." It is a handsome book of 1008 pages, with over 300 illus-trations and colored plates, and a greater amount of exact information about the hu-man body in health and disease than was The weather conditions were much ever before published in a single volume. It is a complete medical library in itself, and it has had a greater sale at $1.50 a copy than any other medical book in the English language. Six hundred and eighty thousand copies have been sold, and now an edition of half a million is being distributed absolutely free. The free edition is in strong paper covers. If French cloth, embossed and beautifully stamped covers are desired, to cents extra, 31 cents in all, should be sent to pay the extra cost of this handsome binding. Dr. Pierce's Picasant Felicits are for the permanent cure of constipation, and all its attendant life. Sour stomach, indigestion, dryspepsis, bliousness, flaulence, heart burn, headache, bad breath, had complexion, pimples, blotches and cruptive skin diseases are directly traceable to this one seemingly insignificant cause. If you have any of these symptoms, you will find have any of these symptoms. The first eighth had been covered, within the others were at though the track remained meany and not at its best. Kentucky Union was heavily at its tra, 31 cents in all, should be sent to pay the extra cost of this handsome binding. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Fellets are for the permanent cure of constipation, and all its attendant like. Sour stomach, indigestion, dayspepts, biliousness, flatulence, heart burn, headache, bad breath, had complexion, pimples, blotches and prompt and permanent relief in Dr. Pierces Pleasant Pellets. One little "Pellet" is a greatle laxative and two a mild cathartic. The little vial, no bigger round than a lead pench, contains about forty "Pelleta" and cost twenty-five cents. There is nothing "just as good," and if cents. There is nothing "just as good," and if cents. There is nothing "just as good," and if cents. There is nothing "just as good," and if cents. There is nothing "just as good," and if cents. There is nothing "just as good," and if cents. There is nothing "just as good," and if cents. There is nothing "just as good," and if cents. The receive and the prompt and permanent relief in Dr. Pierces when a straight heats and without being brought to a drive at any stage of the contest.

The race for two-year-olds was equally cast for the There is There is nothing the action. The man and the prompt and permanent relief in Dr. Pierces when a straight heats and without being brought to a drive at any stage of the contest.

The race for two-year-olds was equally cast for the contest.

PALMER CHOSEN.

the masses and of equal justice to all, practically established by the legislation of 1834 and 1832, the gold standard of monetary measurement and likewise entirely divorced the government from banking and currency issues. To this long established Democratic policy we attere and insist on the maintenance of the root standard and of the partity therewith gold standard and of the parity therewith of every dollar issued by the Government and are firmly opposed to the free and un compulsory purchase of sliver bullion.

constant source of injury and perio.

We assert the necessity of such intelligent currency reform as will comine tee government to its legitimate functions, completely separating from the lumning country, a uniform, safe and mating bank currency under governmental sopulvis-

THE ADMINISTRATION. The Edelity, patriotlam, and courage with which President Clevestand has ini-filled his public trust, the high char-acter of his mininistration its wisdem further. We demand that no backward step be taken, but that the reform be supported and advanced until the un-APPROPRIATIONS.

the government,
ARBITRATION.

ARBITRATION.

We favor arbitration for the settlement of international disputes.

PENSIONS.

We favor a liberal policy of pensions to describing soldiers and sailors of the United States.

SUPPLIME COURT.

The Supreme Court of the United States was wisely established by the framers of our Constitution as one of the three co-ordinate branches of the government. Its independence and authority to interpret the law of the land without fear or favor must be maintained. We con-

MR. BYNUM CHAIRMAN.

candidates stonic take place at Louisville on the 12th instant.

Mr. Byraum and after the committee had adjourned that he did not expect to name the members of the Executive Committee before next week.

The following is a revised list of the new National Committee so far as the States have named their members:
Alabama—J. M. Falkner.
Arkansas—C. B. Moore.
California—E. B. Pond.
Colarado—Louis R. Ehrich.
Delaware—J. S. Rosselle.
Florida—D. G. Gabber.
Georgia—Thomas F. Corrigan.
Illinois—Bee T. Cable.
Indiana—John R. Wilson.,
Iowa—L. N. Martin,
Kansas—Engene Hagan. Kennaky-Zach Pheips
Louislann-M. R. Speitman,
Maine-C. Vey Holan.
Maryland-W. D. Pinckney Whyte,
Massachusetts-Nathan Matthews, Jr.
Mississippl-H. M. Street,
Minnesota-F. W. M. Cutcheon,
Mississippl-H. M. Street,
Minnesota-F. W. M. Cutcheon,
Missouri-L. C. Krauthoff,
Nebraska-Ewild Martin,
New Hampshire-Gorden Woodberry,
New Jersey-William J. Cortis,
New Jersey-William J. Curtis,
New York-Charles Tracy
North Carolina-Lonis De La Criex,
North Dukota-H. L. Whitehead,
Ohio-Talford P. Lann,
Oregon-C. E. S. Wood,
Rhode Island-C. C. Munford,
South Carolina-W. R. Davie,
South Dakota-John P. Hantom,
Tennessee-Michael Savago,
Texas-M. L. Crawford,
Vernont-W. H. Creamor,
Virginia-Joseph Bryan,
Washington-Huish C. Wallace,
West Virginia-Randolph Stalnaker,
Wisconsin-Ellis V. Usher,
Arizona-P. J. Cole,
New Mexico-W. B Childers

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES. Fantasy Defeats Crack Trofters in the Free-For All-Class. NEW YORK Sept. 3.—The 5.000 per-sons who attended the grand circuit meetng at Fleetwood Park to-day saw C. J.

Hamilin's six-year-old bay mare. Fantasy, defeat all of the crack trotters of the free-for-all class now in training.

The weather conditions were much more favorable for fast time to-day, al-